

2021 KAMM Mitigation Awards

Nomination Announcement

KAMM is happy to announce we are accepting nominations for KAMM's 2021 Mitigation Awards for excellence by a KAMM member or project. The Mitigation Award was established to recognize an individual as Mitigation Manager of the Year and a project as Mitigation Project of the Year. Nominees will excel at partnerships or collaborations that strengthened mitigation in a community.

Nominees for Mitigation Manager of the Year

- Leader who promotes resiliency through mitigation
- Inspires others to get involved
- Positively impacts community
- Increases public awareness on mitigation

Nominees for Mitigation Project of the Year

- Implemented a successful mitigation project
- Positively impacted the community
- Promotes educational opportunities
- Aligns with KAMM's Mission/Purpose

Award Winners will receive

- Recognition at the 2021 Annual Conference
- A 2021 Award Plaque
- A complimentary 2022 KAMM Conference Registration
- Opportunity to present at 2022 Conference

Submit Nominations

- Submit Nominees by August 2, 2021
- Submit on the KAMM Website - <http://www.kymitigation.org/2020-kamm-mitigation-award-nominations/>

PAST WINNERS

2020 Mitigation Manager of the Year

Joe Sullivan (Louisville National Weather Service)

- Increases communication between agencies to build a Weather-Ready Nation
- Member of KAMM since early days
- Promotes hazard mitigation education
- Joe's exciting Sessions has become a staple at KAMM

2019 Mitigation Project of the Year

City of Wayland Drainage Improvements (Floyd County)

- Community received $400K in Hazard Mitigation Grant Funding
- Designed & constructed a drainage system
- Flooding of major roadways and structures have decreased